GROOMING NEEDS

PLAYFULNESS & ACTIVITY

DESCRIPTION The Devon Rex is visually striking and known for the impish faces, tall ears, and slender frames. They are a medium sized cat with large ears, big eyes, high cheekbones, and a long neck. Their coats are fine, short and wavy.

PERSONALITY This unique breed possesses intensely loyal, human-loving, dog-like qualities. A Devon will eat with you, sleep with you and perch cosily on your shoulder. These wide-eyed cats love to play, climb and clown around. They are great fit for very active owners who can give them a lot of attention daily.

COMMON HEALTH PROBLEMS Devon Rexes' are typically healthy pets. Health risks include hypertrophic cardiomyopathy (HCM), dislocating joints, hereditary myopathy (a muscle condition) and hereditary baldness.
